

Invitation to City of London residents : 5th December 2016

Proposed changes to health and social care in Hackney may have an impact on how health services are delivered in the City of London. This event aims to explore some of the proposals and will provide an opportunity to consider how things would work for City residents. If you are interested in attending the event, you can book your free place at hackney-health-social-care-goeslocal.eventbrite.co.uk or by telephone 0207 923 8358.

Hackney Health & Social Care Goes Local

Big changes to local health & social care services coming your way

Changes will affect you, your family and your area. Find out about, help shape and influence proposed plans, and also hear about and comment on the CCG plan for spending.
